Re: United States v. Temitope Omotayo
19 Cr. 291 (LAP)

LORETTA A. PRESKA, U.S.D.J.

Dear Judge Preska,

I hope this letter finds the Court well. Bail in this matter was set on April 25, 2019 (Pitman, NJ). As a condition of his bail, Mr. Omotayo's travel was restricted to the Southern, Eastern, and Northern Districts of New York. The defense writes now seeking a temporary modification of the travel conditions.

Mr. Omotayo respectfully seeks permission to travel to Indiana to visit with close family and attend a family function. He hopes to leave on Wednesday, May 26, 2021 and return on Tuesday, June 1, 2021. During this period, he will be staying at his cousin's home located at 9049 Cardinal Flower Court, Indianapolis, Indiana.¹

AUSA Daniel Wolf and Pretrial Services Officer Courtney DeFeo take no position with respect to this request.

Thank you for the Court's consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ Matthew J. Kluger
Matthew J. Kluger, Esq.

¹ The defense notes that Mr. Omotayo made a similar request at this time last year and traveled to and from Indianapolis without incident.
